

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sole Poets New CD Release Out January 9th

Dallas, Texas, December 31, 2008—Sole Poets, the Dallas-based rock group, have released their much anticipated new CD “The Other Half of the Sky”.

Sole Poets Front Man, Vocalist, Writer and Rhythm Guitarist, Dave Christensen, along with Dallas Music Legend (Killbilly and Cartwright’s) and Producer, Alan Wooley; have completed the Sole Poets second effort. This time around, Wooley made some major contributions in the recordings.

Joining Christensen on this project is Ron Gulley, Drums and Percussion, with Jim Martinez on Bass rounding out the rhythm section. Dan Thacker, the longtime Sole Poets Lead Guitar Player, continues to lend his style to this new album.

Kickoff for the CD release will be 9pm Friday, January 9 2009, at Poor David’s Pub, 1313 South Lamar Street, Dallas, Texas 75215, $10 cover includes a CD.

For the kickoff, Sole Poets will be accompanied by Wooley. Other contributors to the album who will be performing with the Poets for the release are Spyche, who sang backup on two tracks, and David Mills’ Group, who handled the keyboard work.

An encore CD release performance will be on Feb 7 2009, at Muddy Waters new location, 4314 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas 75204 at 10 pm.

The new CD is tied to Sole Poets first release, “The Other Half of the Sky”, in both title and cover design. Repressing of the first CD has been done and sets will be available.
